WBAI is on the air 24 hours a day, broadcasting at a frequency of 99.5 MHz. Our transmitter is located in the Empire State Building, and we broadcast with an effective radiated power of 5.4 kw (horizontal) and 3.85 kw (vertical). Power equivalent to 50 kw at 500 feet. Our antenna stands 1223 feet above average terrain. The studios are located at 505 Eighth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10018. Subscriptions and donations may be sent to WBAI, P.O. Box 123 Church Street Station, New York, N.Y. 10249. Business inquiries may be made by calling during working hours at (212) 279-0707. WBAI is owned and operated by the Pacifica Foundation, a non-profit corporation operating four other stations: KPFA, 94FM in Berkeley; KPFK, 90.7FM in Los Angeles; KPFT, 90FM in Houston and WPFW, 89.3FM in Washington, D.C.

NEWS SERVICE NOTES:
BREAKFAST AT CARTIER'S A LA DEMOCRATS
(or, "Ruby Rings and the Party of Labor")

New York City, Aug. 11—With the Democratic National Convention about to begin, Cartier's on Fifth Avenue, perhaps the world's most expensive jewelry store, hosted a reception for wives of Democratic governors and other assorted Friends of the Disadvantaged. Heading the glittering guest list was Joan Mondale, the Second Lady. Also circulating among the emerald doodahs was your Pacifica reporter . . .

"Each guest receives a silver pencil from Cartier's in a special gift box," says Ann, a Cartier employee. Sort of a here-we-are-if-you-get-a-minute-later to the high rollers? Well, yes, agrees Ann, but also just "A big hello and welcome to New York." It works, too. "We always get return visits."

Two steps down is the showcase room: a Cartier man has unlocked a ring display to generate the oos and ahs from Mrs. William Winter and her two daughters, the family of Mississippi's Democratic governor.

"This is a ruby with diamonds from Cartier, Paris . . . $7000 . . . and this extraordinary diamond, almost perfect color . . . $29,000 . . .

Ohio Senator Howard Metzenbaum is having a coffee near the fresh blueberry/champagne spread—What might the voters back in Youngstown have to say about his shopping at Cartier's?

"I think my constituents would understand that I never try to be anything other than what I am, and that is: I like beautiful things. Cartier's has beautiful things. . . . I think they're more concerned with my voting record, that I concern myself with the devastated East Bronx area. But I don't think that means I have to live in the East Bronx."

By the way, Metz, it's the South Bronx . . . .

Pacifica covered both party conventions, under the constraints of seriously limited resources, with generous assistance from news people from WORT (Madison, WI), WBUR (Boston), WGDR (Plainfield, VT). Alan Snitow of KPFA (Berkeley) organized live satellite coverage from New York and hour-long summaries from Detroit, with preparatory assistance from Patricia Neighmond, ex-Washington Bureau Chief for Pacifica.

Many members of the team got acquainted at the 5th Annual National Federation of Community Broadcasters Conference in Worcester, Massachusetts, during the first days of August. News directors and reporters from NFCB stations discussed the proposed national newscast at a work meeting specially convened by Alan Snitow and Don Allen of WORT. Tim Frasca of Pacifica National News distributed guidelines for filing news reports with the news service in Washington.

If any listener has questions or comments about the news service from Washington, please contact us directly or send us a copy of correspondence with your local station. We are eager to hear from you: Pacificia National News Service, 868 National Press Building, Washington, DC 20045.

TIM FRASCA

THE FALL MARATHON

In the wake of the Republican and Democratic Conventions, the need for a listener-sponsored station such as WBAI becomes more than obvious; it is essential. Nowhere else in the electronic media can we expect to find thorough, uninhibited and ongoing discussion of abortion, the draft, housing, ERA, the MX missle, the CIA, labor, Grenada, Zimbabwe, Nicaragua, nuclear power, the New Right. . . . Nowhere else can we expect to find an honest analysis of the effects of grants on the arts; or sustained and perceptive interviews with those who create the arts; or uninterupted presentations of the arts: entire operas, full length plays, short stories, poems, a full day of music by a jazz master. . . . Nowhere else does the grass roots political or cultural organization, activist, artist, individual have as much assess to the air. . . . Nowhere else does the listener have as much direct input into the sound and sense that comes out of his or her radio. . . .

The alternative that WBAI represents is perhaps symbolized by its coverage of the Democratic National Convention. Where else on your tv or radio dials could you find hours of coverage of the People's Convention in the South Bronx, or the Coalition for a People's Alternative March on the Democratic Convention, or the ACORN Convention, or the Town Hall rally of the Democratic Agenda, or meetings of the women's caucus, the black caucus, the gay and lesbian caucus?

Last fall WBAI had its best marathon in four and a half years; last sping we had our best marathon in five years; and this past summer, we had probably our best mini-thon ever. Yet in the midst of our fundraising successes, WBAI has been virtually crippled by staggering inflation rates—rates far above the national average of 15%. Over the past year, our phone bill has gone up 40%; our electric bill has gone up 50%, and our transmitter rental has risen by 57%. In order to keep pace with these rates (and thereby continue to keep pace with these explosive times), we need you, the listener. As of this writing, there are some 13,800 of you that have subscribed. We thank you for your support, and we ask you to continue it. But we also need the thousands of others who listen to participate in our air to help pay for it. We need all of our listeners. Take responsibility for your involvement in this electronic community. Make a political act. Support an expression of culture that includes you. Call us (almost any time in October) at 212-279-3400. If you don't have money to pledge, come in (505 Eighth Ave., corner of 35th, 19th floor), volunteer. It's time we got together.

NOTE FROM THE NEW PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Greetings:

By now many of you might have learned that, after a rather lenghty perod of search, study and contemplation, the position of 'BAI's Program Director was offered to me—and I accepted.

As expected, there are those who would have preferred someone else. On the other hand, my appointment was well received by a wide range of people—both 'in-station' workers, as well as listeners.

'Functional Eclecticism' notwithstanding, I cannot say that everyone will "approve" of, or "feel satisfied" with whatever new approaches I might introduce . . . in fact, I know that that would be an impossibility. However, I can say that, given the baisic philosophical principles upon which the Pacifica Foundation was founded, given the (relative) 'social responsibility' content of much of the station's programming over the years and the new (and some old) national and international realities which we are duty-bound to confront, I will make every attempt to continue that which falls into the station's overall philosophical and structural framework and introduce alternatives to those which do not. In both cases I am convinced that listeners must be involved at various levels.

Ours must be a cooperative effort. It is in this spirit that I accept this position—and expect to function.

My thanks to all . . . .

SAMORI T. MARKSMAN

Dear Subscriber:

Just to keep you up to date on what's happening at WBAI, the following represents changes at the Station and at Pacifica. Sharon Maeda has been named Executive Director of the Pacifica Foundation; Benjamin Lorick has been appointed Chairperson of the Local Advisory Board, and Samori Marksman is the new Program Director of WBAI.

I know you join with us in wishing them much success in their new positions. Keep in touch.

ROSEMARIE REED
General Manager

FROM THE EDITOR

To all BAI subscribers, to those who read the BAI Folio nationwide, and to other Pacific Program Guides, greetings from the Biggg Apple's Folio headquarters.

In the spirit of friendly, gentle competition, yes I do glance from time to time at other Program Guides and am always surprised to know that others have their eyes on us for programming content, Folio look and general turn on.

Thank you for the many beautiful letters and the many helpful ones. Thank you to those of you I couldn't answer back.

I am planning to stretch this Folio outfit from a one-woman show to the more practical and satisfying operation of cooperation. The Folio is looking for energetic volunteers to type and proof once a month. We are looking for cover ideas and illustrations. We need photographers willing to cover BAI's events. The most important prerequisities are that you love hard work and the BAI spirit, that you understand deadlines, and that you are good at what you do (no half steppin' needed). Send us samples or a resume—whichever is appropriate, with your phone number. We can offer you credit lines, long hours, great experience and good company. Believe me, cooperation is MUCH better than competition, K.

And to all the wonderful folks who do all the work around here, no matter how hard the times, New York is what's happening, and BAI is where it's "at"!

THE NINTH ANNUAL WBAI HOLIDAY CRAFTS FAIR SET FOR THREE WEEKENDS PRIOR TO CHRISTMAS

The NINTH ANNUAL WBAI HOLIDAY CRAFTS FAIR, the largest and oldest continuous Christmas crafts marketplace in the Northeast will take place on three consecutive weekends, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, December 5th-7th, 12th-14th, and December 19th-21st, from 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM daily, in Columbia University's Ferris Booth Hall, 115th Street and Broadway in Manhattan. Additionally, to help accommodate the busy schedules of holiday shoppers, the Fair will also be open each Thursday evening (December 4, 11, and 18) from 7:00 to 10:00 PM only.

Over 400 skilled professional artisans from 30 states will be dislaying and selling their own handmade work. The two full floors of crafts will feature holiday gift ideas for all: pottery; jewelry; toys and dolls; leather goods; clothing; blown glass; soft sculpture; quilts; furniture; all kinds of houseware; and much more. A different assortment of crafts will be featured each of the three weekends of the Fair and, of course, there will be items on sale that meet every shopper's budget.

Many rare and unusual crafts will also be represented at this year's Fair, including: scrimshaw (carving on bone and ivory); handmade musical instruments (guitars, dulcimers, flutes, African thumb pianos, wooden and ceramic ocarinas); broom and feather dusters; ceramic and fiber jewelry; carved wooden pipes; stoneware clocks; dough sculpture (perfect as Christmas tree ornaments); fireplace equipment; bookbinding; marbled paper; and handmade kaleidoscopes. A percentage of each sale made at the Crafts Fair will go to benefit non-commercial, listener-sponsored radio station, WBAI-FM.

In addition to the large and varied market of handmade crafts available for purchase, there will be assorted homemade foods, beverages, and desserts at the Fair. Live entertainment will be provided daily by clowns, jugglers, mimes, singers, bluegrass bands, and others. Daycare facilities will also be provided for young children.

The poster for this year's Crafts Fair has been created by the noted graphic artist and interior designer, Ivan Chermayeff.

Transportation to the WBAI Crafts Fair includes the IRT Seventh Avenue local train (the #1) to the 116th Street and Broadway, and the M104, M4 and M5 buses to Broadway. Good parking is also available in the Columbia University area.

Admission to the NINTH ANNUAL WBAI HOLIDAY CRAFTS FAIR is by a $2 per person contribution at the door ($1 for senior citizens). For further information, please call WBAI at (212) 279-0707 daily between noon and 5:00 PM.

9:00 THE NEW RIGHT
What's Right? The Politics of reaction from the Neo-Conservatives to the Klu Klux Klan.

In the 1970's cold war liberals became Neo-Conservatives. We no longer hear about a "New Deal" or "Great Society", but rather of balanced budgets and more productivity for workers. The Nazi's and KKK are once again in the news and the right to lifers along with ultraconservative Evangelicals are a political force to be reckoned with.

In todays special day of programmng we'll examine some of these political trends and what some call the "New Right". What's new about it? How will it affect detente, a word seldom heard of these days, and what's its implications for the November elections and the rest of the 1980's.

Produced by the Public Affairs Department. Continued after the 6:30 News.

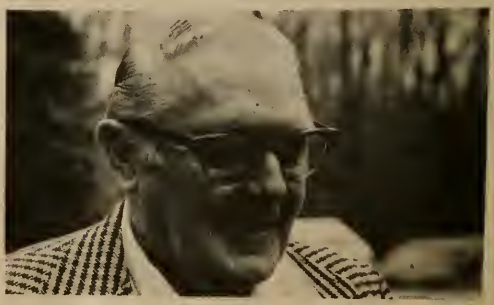
2:00 IN PERFORMANCE: PADDY TUNNEY, IRISH SINGER
Paddy Tunney, born in 1921, has been, and continues to be one of the finest singers of Irish traditional songs. In addition to being an exceptional unaccompanied singer, in the flesh he comes across as a most knowledgeable and witty talker about Irish music and culture. This performance, on one of his rare American tours, took place as part of the Irish Fortnight, presented by The Irish American Cultural Institute at John Jay College of Criminal Justice on April 22, 1980. It was recorded and produced for broadcast by Edward Haber.

6:30 NEWS
A roundup of neighborhood, local, national and international trends and events. With Robert Knight.

7:30 MARTIN MULVIHILL AND MICK MOLONEY—IRISH MUSIC SESSION
Martin Mulvihill, born in Ireland and resident of New York City, has long been known as one of the finest teachers of Irish traditional music. He is, as well, a superb fiddler of traditional Irish music from his own County Limerick. Mick Moloney, long known for his work with The Johnstons, has more recently been producing records of Irish musicians living in America. He is an excellent guitar, banjo, and mandolin player and singer. Here the two perform mostly instrumentals (with the occasional song), approached mostly as one would a session, rather than a formal, pre-planned concert. This performance took place at the Eagle Tavern in New York City on Wednesday, June 18, 1980, and was recorded and produced for broadcast by Edward Haber. Photos: top Martin Mulvihill, bottom Mick Moloney.



10:00 WE SHALL OVERCOME
The Civil Rights Movement of the early '60's produced one of the most dynamic singing social movements in American history. Out of these times came a small group of singing community organizers—the Freedom Singers, including Bernice Reagon. Featuring on-the-spot recordings of demonstrations in Birmingham and Selma, this program blends the sounds and songs of history. Included are brilliant concert recordings of this group in the South and at the 1963 Newport Folk Festival, as well as the singing of Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, Nina Simone, and Len Chandler. Produced by David Dunaway, KPFA, 1979.

9:00 WOMENS ISSUES
Womens issues have always been important in determining the structure and direction of society. In our own time the changing role of women and its potential effect on the economic and social structure have thrust womens issues into the forefront of consciousness. At both the Republican National Convention in Detroit in July and at the Democratic National Convention in New York City, issues such as the ratification of the Equal Rights Ammendment and A Womens Right to Choose (Abortion) were the focus of great controversy.

This day will expore womens issues from the perspective of 1980. Topics to be discussed during the day will include: The Historic Role of Women in American Society, Health Resources for Women, Changing Definitions of Family, The ERA, The Abortion Question, Women and the Economy, Women and the Environment, and The Development of an International Feminist Movement. In addition there will be two special programs:

P.M.
